

The Transfiguration

Matthew 17:1-13

1. The Transfiguration connects the Old Testament with the New Testament.
2. The Transfiguration puts us face to face with the glory of God.
3. The Transfiguration establishes the beginning of the New Covenant.

Personal and Mid-Week Study:

Matthew 17:1-3

How does the Transfiguration of Jesus connect the Old Testaments and New Testaments?

What unique qualities of Moses and Elijah qualify them to be present here over other Old Testament figures?

Matthew 17:4

Why was Peter's suggestion to build three shelters (or tabernacles) not appropriate?

Matthew 17:5-6

Why were the disciples' reaction to hearing God's voice completely appropriate?

Matthew 17:7-9

Why do you think Jesus would instruct the disciples not to tell anyone until He had risen from the dead?

For Further Consideration and Application:

What is one way you can listen to Jesus and obey this week?

How will you worship Jesus this week?

How is the glory of God at work in your life today?

Other passages that may help you this week: Exodus 33:18-23; 1 Kings 19:9-13; 2 Peter 1:16-18; Matthew 5:17

Prayer Point:

Pray that you would listen for the voice of God. Pray that you would obey His words. Pray that your worship would not be misdirected but centered only on Jesus. Pray that God would show you His glory.
